Registration No, Registration Authority
(Receiving Party)

Jointly mentioned as “Both Parties”

Whereas:

- I. The Offering Party confirms to be the party appearing in the RIPE Registry as the legitimate holder of the legacy Internet resources.
- II. Both Parties have agreed/entered into an agreement regarding the transfer of the registration of the legacy Internet resources [insert legacy Internet resources] (hereafter “Legacy Internet Resources”) from the Offering Party to the Receiving Party.
- III. Both Parties confirm that all information provided in connection with this request is true, accurate and up-to-date.

Both Parties:

1. Request that the RIPE NCC undertakes the appropriate actions so that the registration of the Legacy Internet Resources is transferred from the Offering Party to the Receiving Party and all relevant information is accordingly updated in the RIPE Registry.
2. Acknowledge, confirm and accept that:
 - 2.1. The terms and conditions of this agreement do not violate any existing laws applicable to the Offering Party or to the Receiving Party.

- 2.2. In the event that this agreement is nullified or deemed invalid due to violation of laws described in Article 2.1, the transfer of registration of Legacy Internet Resources shall be reverted and the Legacy Internet Resources shall be returned to the Offering Party.
- 2.3. The terms and conditions of this transfer may be the subject of a separate agreement of which the RIPE NCC is not part. The RIPE NCC shall not be responsible and cannot be held liable for this transfer, or for the non-fulfillment of this transfer due to any reason derived from a dispute or a disagreement between the Offering Party and the Receiving Party.
- 2.4. Due to this transfer, all responsibilities and obligations, that arise from the registration of the Legacy Internet Resources and which the RIPE NCC might not be aware of, will also be transferred from the Offering Party to the Receiving Party.
- 2.5. If a third party provides sufficient evidence proving that the Offering Party had no rights to use the Legacy Internet Resources at the time of this request, the RIPE NCC reserves the right to revert all changes made in compliance with this request. In such a case, the RIPE NCC shall not be held liable for damages caused to any party, including the Offering Party and the Receiving Party, in connection with the changes in the RIPE Registry in compliance with this request.
- 2.6. If any of the information and/or documentation provided in connection with this request is subsequently found by the RIPE NCC to be substantially incorrect, falsified or misleading, the RIPE NCC reserves the right to revert all changes made to the relevant database registration objects accordingly. This applies equally to all information and documentation provided to the RIPE NCC by Both Parties with regards to this request.
- 2.7. The RIPE NCC and its Management Team shall not be responsible and cannot be held liable for any direct and/or indirect damages, including damages to Both Parties' business, loss of profit, damages to third parties caused due to compliance with this request or the ongoing maintenance of the relevant database registration objects in accordance with this request.
- 2.8. Both Parties shall indemnify the RIPE NCC against any and all third party claims filed against the RIPE NCC in relation to compliance with this request.
