RIPE NCC Conflict Arbitration Procedure

Proposed Changes

Athina Fragkouli | 18 November 2015 | General Meeting

Why change this procedure?

- We now have more experience with arbitration
- Editorial changes - alignment with “new” corporate documents

Proposed Changes

- Clerical support
- Timeframes
- Miscellaneous

Clerical support

*If the RIPE NCC is one of the parties involved in the conflict, clerical support ~~will~~ may be provided by a third party if so requested by the other party or by the arbiter at the time of the initiation of the process.

- ✓ Reduces possible costs for the losing party

Timeframes

Submission of relevant information by parties to arbiter within ~~one~~ two calendar weeks of the arbiter's request

The arbiter shall communicate the arbitration ruling to the parties concerned within 12 calendar weeks from the date the arbitration commences. Upon the arbiter's discretion, the 12-calendar-week period may be reasonably extended.

✓ Extension of tight timelines

Miscellaneous

- Clarifications
- Editorial changes
 - Alignment of wording with other corporate documents

Resolution

“The General Meeting approves the RIPE NCC
Conflict Arbitration Procedure.”
