Internet Governance Forum 2011

Chris Buckridge
External Relations Officer, RIPE NCC

Internet Governance Forum 2011

- 27-30 September 2011, Nairobi, Kenya

- Sixth annual IGF

- 2011 theme:
  - Internet as a catalyst for change: access, development, freedoms and innovation

- Number Resource Organization (NRO) organising two workshops

IPv6

- Workshop 165: Understanding IPv6 Deployment and Transition

  - Thursday, 29 September, 9:00 - 10:30

- Focus on capacity building, ongoing challenges

- Speakers from technical community, government, industry

Monday, September 12, 11

Multi-stakeholder Understanding

- Workshop 166: Enhancing Understanding: Facilitating Internet Governance Through Openness and Transparency

  - Wednesday, 28 September, 11:00-12:30

- Follow-up to 2010 IGF workshop, "Enhancing Transparency in Internet Governance"

- Practical strategies for developing a better understanding of Internet governance concepts and between stakeholder groups

Resource Certification

- No workshop

- Agenda point in the main session on Critical Internet Resources

- Laying foundation for informed, multi-stakeholder discussion

RIPE
NCC

Monday, September 12, 11